

I was appalled to hear that Congress was considering limiting XM's access to weather and traffic information. I do not understand why the FCC would interfere with my ability to listen to weather and traffic from a service that I subscribe to and pay for?

This is not about protecting the airwaves, it truly seems like lobbyists fighting against the interests of the community. Please do not take this action.